3. PaHo reserves the right to cancel a course if the weather forecast is too bad for the course in question to take place. Participants will be informed about this a few days before the start of the course. In that case, participants will receive their money back, less the non-refundable costs (eg, but not limited to, insurance or car rental).
4. The course fee must be paid 6 weeks before the start of the course. If registration takes place within this period, the course fee must be paid immediately upon registration. Participation in our courses is only possible if the full course fee has been paid in advance.

6. Cancelling a course:

  - c. In case of cancellation less than 6 weeks before the start of the course, the participant owes the full course fee (guidance costs and costs of rented materials). We strongly advise participants to take out a cancellation insurance to cover the risk of last-minute cancellations!
  - d. Relocation to another course within the same season is possible free of charge up to 6 weeks before the commencement date of the booked course. If you want to relocate, we expect you to inform us in a timely manner (maximum within two weeks) which other course you want to move to. If this does not happen it will be treated as a cancellation.
  - e. If a participant has not paid the full course fee 6 weeks before the start date, PaHo reserves the right to regard this as a cancellation in accordance with paragraph b and to offer his spot to someone else.

8. No refund will be given in the event of early termination of the course.
9. If a participant indicates with his/her booking that he wishes to take out travel insurance, this travel insurance can no longer be canceled after the booking has been completed, nor can the number of travel days be reduced. It is possible to insure additional travel days, please contact our office for this.
10. To ensure a safe and enjoyable learning environment for everyone, we expect all participants to maintain a respectful and social attitude towards fellow students and the instruction team. Following the guidance and instructions provided by our team is essential for your safety and that of others. If a participant fails to adhere to these behavioral guidelines or repeatedly refuses to follow instructions, we reserve the right to terminate their course without entitlement to a refund.
11. The flights of the basic towing course are valid for a maximum of 2 years from the start date of the course. The entitlement to these flights expires after 2 years. The ground training that is part of the basic towing course is valid for 1 year. If after 1 year the participant has to follow a ground training again, the ground training rate as published on our website applies. Flight packages are valid for a maximum of 5 years and are non-refundable.
12. To participate in a towing day a reservation is required. If you cancel this reservation less than 24 hours before the start of the towing day (11.00 am is the starting time), you will be charged a 25 euro cancellation fee. If a pilot has a reservation but doesn't show up on the day itself, PaHo reserves the right to exclude you from making a reservation in future.

13. In the event of cancellation of the reserved tandem flights (also by PaHo due to, for example, bad weather) no money will be returned; the reserved tandem flights and tandem vouchers are transferable. The validity of tandem vouchers is stated on the voucher itself.
14. If it appears that minor changes to the data stated in a brochure or on this website are necessary or desirable, Paragliding Holland may change these data at its own discretion. The aforementioned changes will be communicated to the students as soon as possible via the website and PaHo Newsletter sent by e-mail.
15. All prices and dates subject to change.
16. All goods delivered by Paragliding Holland remain the property of Paragliding Holland until the entire purchase amount has been paid.
17. Complaints must be brought to the attention of Paragliding Holland within 14 days after delivery of the goods on pain of inadmissibility. Complaints with regard to defects that by their nature cannot be observed within the stipulated period of 14 days must be submitted immediately after the buyer has become aware of the defect or defects, but never later than one month after delivery. A complaint can never be made if the goods delivered to the buyer have undergone processing, have been used, have become dirty or have been damaged. This insofar as it falls outside the normal warranty conditions of the manufacturer.
18. The student / tandem customer declares to be aware that paragliding is a risk sport and can lead to accidents, even if practiced under ideal circumstances. In aviation, flight errors, structural errors or poor conditions can result in accidents, even fatal ones.
19. The student / tandem customer declares to be aware that liability risks of the paragliding sport are not insurable and furthermore declares that he / she will never hold Paragliding Holland (PaHo) or any of its employees liable for the consequences of an accident during the paragliding course or tandemflight.
20. The student is obliged to ensure that the flying equipment he / she uses meets the flight safety requirements set by the KNVvL. Similarly, whether the (auxiliary) instructors accompanying him / her meet the requirements of the KNVvL and whether they are present for guiding his / her flight. If one of these requirements is not met, the student must refrain from starting with a paraglider (for all details see the prevailing regulations on the KNVvL website: <https://www.knvv.nl/paragliding/>)
21. During our courses all students flying on equipment from Paragliding Holland are insured for third party liability up to a maximum of € 1,136.000 per event, if and insofar as their liability is not insured elsewhere. Students who have their own equipment need to have their own third party liability insurance.
22. If a student participates in the course with their own equipment, they are required to ensure that it meets the standards set by the KNVvL in the 'Reglement Paragliding'. Additionally, the equipment must be appropriate for the student's experience level. Paragliding Holland considers seat harnesses with a proper protector suitable for training. However, a pod harness or a lightweight harness without a protector is not suitable for pilots without a 'Brevet 2' or equivalent foreign licence. The instruction team of Paragliding Holland reserves the right, at all times, to declare the equipment or parts thereof unsuitable for lessons in case of doubt or for safety reasons. If a student is unsure whether their equipment meets the required standards, we recommend contacting our office in advance.
23. If the flight equipment is rented from Paragliding Holland, the renter is responsible for damage or theft of the equipment up to a maximum of € 6000.
24. You may cancel rented materials free of charge up to 2 weeks before the course begins. After this deadline, cancellations are no longer possible due to scheduling and administrative preparations. Should you wish to rent additional materials within 2 weeks prior to the course, please contact our office to check availability.
25. If the flight equipment is damaged because the renter / student fails to follow instructions from the Paragliding Holland instruction team, then the renter / student is liable for the damage that has occurred.
26. Paragliding Holland is not liable for damage resulting from the use of any article or service supplied by PaHo. By following a course or purchasing and using any item or service, the buyer / user accepts full responsibility.
27. The student indemnifies Paragliding Holland against claims from third parties.
28. Good health is required for practicing paragliding. Every student must complete and sign a personal medical statement that is printed in our PaHo flight logbook. This medical statement must be valid at all times.
29. A student is entitled to our customer discount if he / she has purchased a new, complete flight set from Paragliding Holland. A flight set is understood to include at least: paraglider, harness and emergency parachute. The customer discount for courses applies as long as the customer participates in our courses with this flight set. When a part of this flight set is sold (for example, paraglider), the customer discount is canceled. The discount applies only to selected courses. The website specifies for each course whether the customer discount is applicable.
30. It may happen that you as a student will drive the PaHo bus. This can also concern a rented bus. We would like to draw your attention to the fact that the bus only has third party liability insurance. Damage to the bus, the contents or the passengers caused by you are not covered by our insurance and can thus be claimed upon you. Any fines are also at the expense of the driver.
31. Disputes under this agreement will be submitted to the competent court.

32. Dutch law will apply to this agreement at all times.
